Fact Sheet: PhD Completion Grant at Leibniz Universität Hannover
(as of 2017-01-01)

The goal of this funding programme jointly provided by the Equal Opportunities Office (Hochschulbüro für Chancen-Vielfalt) and the Graduate Academy, is to support young researchers in finishing their PhD project if project delay is caused by family reasons or by the event of particular hardships. Depending on the individual conditions, funding will be provided either as part-time position of TV-L 13 (0.5 TV-L 13) or as a scholarship. The funding period is six months at the most and will end with handing in the PhD thesis to the respective faculty. Prior to submitting an application, the Equal Opportunities Office or the Graduate Academy has to be contacted for a personal consultation.

Object of the Grant

- Delay in finishing the doctorate due to family reasons (e.g. pregnancy, educational tasks, caring for relatives). In these cases, contact the Equal Opportunities Office.
- Delay in finishing the doctorate due to the event of particular hardships (e.g. illness, reductions of PhD funding or delay in research activities through no fault of one's own, further reasons are possible). In these cases, contact the Graduate Academy office.

Provisions of the Grant

The grant will usually be awarded for a period of six months. Depending on the reason for the delay and on the applicant's situation, the grant is provided as follows:

- 0.5 position (TV-L 13) as member of research staff at the institute of the applicant
- Completion scholarship (usually, € 1,250 per month)

Eligibility to apply

- Registered doctoral students of Leibniz Universität Hannover can apply for this funding.
- Applications are possible any time. Prior to submitting an application, a responsible person of the Equal Opportunities Office or the Graduate Academy has to be contacted for a personal consultation.

Selection Criteria and Selection Procedures

- The selection criteria depend on the respective reasons for delay.
- The Vice President for Appointment Issues, Human Resources Development and Continuing Education & Director of the Graduate Academy decides upon funding based on a proposal from a joint selection board consisting of members of the Committee on Equal Opportunities and of the executive board of the Graduate Academy.
- The PhD completion grant will be awarded subject to the available budget resources and is bound by the purpose outlined in the application. The applicant shall have no claim to being awarded a grant.
